Strength and Nutrition

8:30-11:30am

Kids Strength & Nutrition Camp

Kids strength & nutrition camp is all about moving & eating!

This summer camp focuses on the fun of movement and nutrition. Each morning we will start off with a great workout involving exercises, obstacles, and circuits, all while encouraging a positive body image and building a stronger and confident self. After a great stretching session, we are going to talk about food, make food, & eat food. Understanding how food helps your body can be a tasty adventure in the kitchen.

Ages 8-13

Cost for the week is $120 per child.

August 19th -23rd

Tech class

The first half of the camp would consist of LEGO Robotics and Science (8:00am-11am). The second half of the camp, kids would engage in learning about Game Design (12pm-3pm). For those registering their kids for a full day would be required to pack a lunch for lunch time. Those kids attending half day sessions may also bring lunches and stay for lunch break/game time.
